Officers Tried to Stop Shooting.

Companions of Dead Lieutenant Tell of Night of Rioting.

Three Failed to Prevent Suicide on Report of Murder, Is Testimony.

Witnesses Disagree on Details of Fight and Pistol Fighting.

(Associated Press Night Report.)

ANNAPOLIS (Md.) July 25.—The proceedings at today's session of the court of inquiry investigating the death of Lieut. Sutton of Portland, Ore., took a sensational turn when First Lieut. William F. Bevan of the Marine Corps, now attached to the battleship New Jersey, testified.

He related his part in the tragedy of October 12, 1927, when young Sutton met his death. Lieut. Bevan was officer of the guard in the marine camp on that night.

Like Lieut. Adams, he testified that Sutton deliberately shot himself, but his description of Sutton's alleged suicide varied from the story told by Adams.

TRY TO HOLD HIM DOWN. The most glaring disagreement with Adams' story came when Bevan swore that he and two other officers were on top of Sutton and trying to hold him down to prevent him from using his revolver, when Sutton fired a bullet into his own brain, after some one remarked that he (Sutton) had killed Lieut. Roelker.

Bevan's testimony also revealed that a situation bordering on a wild west rampage had existed in the marine camp prior to the shooting, when Sutton had been trying to make Lieut. Roelker dance by leveling two revolvers at his feet.

Lieut. Adams, Osterman and Bevan composed the three of the court today. Adams, as a member of Sutton's automobile party on the night of October 12, corroborated Lieut. Adams' story, except to add that he and Adams were badly intoxicated on that night.

Adams' lawyer, Louis J. Davis, today asked questions of Lieut. Adams which brought out the fact that Adams was drinking heavily on the night of the shooting. He also asked Adams to question the fact that Adams was drinking heavily on the night of the shooting.

OPPONENTS IN ROW OVER FOREST RESERVES.

Controversy Is Growing.

Ballinger-Pinchot Feud Stirring Official Circles.

President May Take Hand in Settling Trouble.

Attorney-General Called on for an Opinion.

(By Direct Wire to the Times.)

WASHINGTON, July 25.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] To what extent can a subordinate of one department of the federal government direct the head of another department and to what degree will the President permit such interference to extend without disciplining the subordinate, or making a change in his Cabinet.

An interesting controversy is pending between Secretary of the Interior Ballinger and Gifford Pinchot, chief of the Forestry Service of the Department of Agriculture. Mr. Pinchot under the last administration was a member of the Roosevelt cabinet, a staunch friend, who would not desert him under adverse congressional legislation.

Mr. Pinchot experienced no difficulty in drawing administrative titles in different localities from fifty to two, three and four hundred acres near forestry reservations. The statements that these titles were needed as headquarters for forestry rangers, the complaint Secretary of the Interior acted.

NEW PRACTICE BEGINS. Upon the change of administration, when Mr. Ballinger succeeded Mr. Garfield, a new practice was promptly inaugurated. Mr. Ballinger knew of Mr. Pinchot, but between them there was no such friendship as had existed between the chief forester of the Department of Agriculture and Mr. Garfield.

Mr. Ballinger, after consideration of the practice which had prevailed under Mr. Garfield, decided that to withdraw the so-called administrative titles was a violation of the spirit and intent of the law because the practice resulted in virtually enlarging the forestry reserves, which could only be done by act of Congress.

Secretary Ballinger has other grievances against Mr. Pinchot. He not only has the opinion that Mr. Pinchot has been guilty of violating the will of Congress, but he feels a personal animosity toward him. Mr. Pinchot has raised and has carried to the President.

Norwegian Bride Travels Portland to Wed.

Groom, Master of Ship, Unable to Leave Post.

BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.

PORTLAND, July 25.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] When the Norwegian steamer Henrik leaves port tomorrow a pretty romance of the sea will reach its successful conclusion. The marriage of her master, Captain Strandevik, to Miss Frederikke Hansen, who has come all the way from Norway, to wed the lover of her youth.

The two were sweethearts in the old country, and grew up together. Young Strandevik followed the sea, and his successful captaincy will reach home to claim his bride, who has remained true to him through his years of apprenticeship and minor command. When he was given command of the Henrik, he was in despair of ever being able to leave his ship long enough to get married. So the plucky young man decided to come to this country to meet her fiancée.

Arrangements were made by letter and Captain Strandevik, when he reached here, was instructed to meet Miss Hansen, who is to come in late tonight on the Portland. Her fiancée, who is to come in late tonight on the Portland. Her fiancée, who is to come in late tonight on the Portland.

SLAYER OF SISTER'S LOVER IS ACQUITTED.

Dramatic Scene When Jury Frees Mitchell on the First Ballot—Youth Hugs Mother and Shakes Hands With Father—Sensational Trial.

"UNWRITTEN LAW." The jury on the first ballot last evening, in the second trial of William C. Mitchell, who was charged with the killing of Cecil Thayer on January 1, acquitted him. The "unwritten law" again demonstrated its power. At the first trial the jury disagreed. After the verdict was announced, young Mitchell jumped from his seat and running across the courtroom, threw his arms about the neck of Mrs. Thayer and kissed her. Then he turned to his devoted little mother and hugged and kissed her as she cried in his arms for happiness. He shook hands with his father and a moment later was the center of a throng of friends, all eager to congratulate the youth who had fired five bullets into the body of his sister's lover and whose name had been justified. It was a dramatic scene when Judge Willis asked the members of the jury after they had assembled in the box whether they agreed upon a verdict. The father of the defendant, Ansel J. Mitchell, and his mother, leaned forward anxiously. It was a life and death for their boy and the delay was a torture. Miss May Mitchell, a single woman, was trembling in her seat and hardly dared to look at the men who held the fate of her brother in their hands. Young Mitchell passed his left hand across his eyes, as if to clear his vision, but gave no other sign of emotion. "Gentlemen, have you agreed upon a verdict?" asked the court. "We have," replied Foreman Nelson. "Read it," commanded the judge. "We, the jury in the above entitled action, find the defendant not guilty." In a moment the courtroom was a turmoil. Attorney Frank F. Pratt was the first to congratulate Mitchell. He shook hands with the youth and jumped toward his mother. ANOTHER NOTCH IN HISTORY. This ending of the case marks another notch in the legal history of Los Angeles county. At a time when a man cares to kill another who has wronged a woman member of his family, even though it be nearly two years after the betrayal, there is precedent for immunity, according to one of the prosecutors. The other notch in the legal story of the county was made in the case of Estelle Corwell, tried for killing her lover because he failed to marry her. She was acquitted. The verdict set the precedent that a woman has the right to kill a man who refuses to marry her after she has been his mistress. The Mitchell trial, yesterday, was replete with sensations. Deputy District Attorney Horton finished his address to the jury in a most eloquent manner, and was followed by Attorney Pratt, Attorney Earl Rogers for the defense. The closing argument for the prosecution was by Deputy District Attorney North. All the lawyers for the defense expressed to the jury their horror that an expert in insanity should base his testimony on a fee. Attorney Pratt declared that such a physician could not treat a yellow dog of his. He denounced a doctor who was willing to testify for one side, but testified for the other, even at the risk of placing a rope about a young man's neck, for the sake of a fee. Attorney Dehn was also emphatic in regard to experts whose testimony can be bought, and held such men up to the scorn of their professional brethren. SCORES BOUGHT TESTIMONY. Earl Rogers told of a certain well-known physician of this city who was willing to testify for the defense for $200, yet appeared for the prosecution because the defense was too poor to pay what he asked. "There may be all the symptoms of disease as laid down in the books," declared Rogers, "yet for 200 bucks he will go on the stand and testify the man is sane. It is the rankest kind of perjury. The time will come when this will no longer be ethical. I do not believe in it. I have seen too much of it." Rogers also paid his respects to Deputy District Attorney Horton and denounced the suppression of the evidence regarding the tattoo marks on the body of young Thayer. He stated that this was the fifty-third murder trial in which he had taken part and that it was with this case that the evidence taken at the Coroner's inquest had been withheld. Judge Willis submitted to the jury part of the instructions offered by both the prosecution and the defense. One called attention to the fact that there is no such thing as the "unwritten law." The court added that if the jury found that the killing of Thayer was accomplished at a time when the defendant was insane and could not distinguish between right and wrong, it must acquit. The only question, apparently, which

William C. Mitchell, saved by the unwritten law from conviction of the killing of Cecil Thayer.

DEATH MUSTERS OUT SOLDIER.

OFFICER WITH SPLENDID RECORD PASSES AWAY.

Gen. Compton, Veteran of Two Wars and Indian Campaigns, and Long in the Country's Service, Stricken With Heart Failure at the Home of His Son. Brig.-Gen. Charles H. Compton, U.S. A. (retired), veteran of two wars and several Indian campaigns, died suddenly yesterday noon, at the home of his son, Paul Compton, on Blymore avenue, Hollywood. Gen. Compton, with Mrs. Compton, had been a guest there for three months. Death was due to heart failure, and was entirely unexpected. He had been slightly indisposed for a few days, but no serious results were anticipated. Gen. Compton was 73 years of age, and had been retired ten years. He was a resident of "Wilmington, Del., but was well-known in Hollywood and this city, where he had frequently visited during the past few years. He leaves a widow and son. The remains will be taken to San Francisco, today, for military burial at the Presidio, and there will be no services in this city. Gen. Charles Compton was born in Mauricetown, N. J., January 28, 1836. He enlisted in the United States Volunteer Infantry, May 1, 1861, as sergeant of the First Iowa Infantry; appointed captain, Eleventh Iowa, October 15, 1861; major, Forty-seventh United States Infantry, February 1, 1862; lieutenant-colonel, Fifty-third United States Infantry, December 8, 1864; mustered out of volunteer service March 3, 1866; appointed to regular army from Iowa as major, February 28, 1866; promoted to lieutenant-colonel Fifth Cavalry, April 23, 1870; colonel, Fourth Cavalry, December 8, 1870; brigadier-general, general of volunteers, Spanish War, May 4, 1898; mustered out of volunteer service, January 6, 1899; retired June 3, 1899; brigadier-general, U.S. A., April 23, 1904. He was brevetted lieutenant-colonel, March 3, 1867, for gallant and meritorious services in campaign against Mobile; colonel, February 27, 1890, for distinguished service in the campaign against the Indians on Red River, Tex., August 20, 1874.

PLUMBERS FIRED OUT.

Union's Demand for Twenty-five Per Cent. Increase in Wages Proves a Boomerang. The trouble-makers of the Plumbers' Union "got theirs," and are now "enjoying" an enforced vacation during the dull season, when it best suits the master plumbers. They had given notice that they would demand $5 a day, commencing Monday morning, and the employers promptly met and agreed among themselves that they could not pay any such wages, and would discharge the men making the demand. Saturday night, the men employed in the various establishments gave notice that they would expect $5 a day hereafter, and without exception they were told to take out their tools and come back to work on Monday. This quick action on the part of the employers threw 200 journeymen plumbers out of work, without time to strike, and some of them are wondering what they have gained. There seems to have been but one big job in progress, on which only union labor was employed, and that is in no way affected. This is the fine ten-story block at Sixth and Broadway for which Blumne & Jay are the plumbing contractors. "We are not worrying a bit," Mr. Blumne said last night. "We are so well ahead with the Story job that the shortage of men does not affect us in the least. We have all we need at the present time, and when we need others will have no trouble to get them." The independent plumbing contractors are in no way affected by the demand of $5 a day further than the union men, and some of them yesterday received a number of applications for work. They are all very fair and open about the matter. The principal open shops are those of James W. Hillman and Newell Iron. There seems to be no disposition on the part of the union shops to entirely break with the men who have worked for them, further than that they will absolutely refuse to pay $5 a day, and as work is really slack at the present time, they can afford to wait while the discharged men think it over. They were receiving $4 a day, which is regarded as very fair compensation, and many of them will likely be glad to return to work at that rate by the time their services are required.

PULLING FOR FREE HARBOR.

Consolidation Boat Is Now Sturdily Manned.

Transfer of Registrations in San Pedro Ended.

Launching of Wilmington's Campaign Splendid.

The last transfers of registrations in San Pedro were filed with the County Clerk yesterday, and the total registered vote of the harbor city, including Terminal Island, or East San Pedro, is 1461. The total number of persons registered in Wilmington is 128. This means that more than 1400 men in the two harbor cities will be entitled to vote at the coming consolidation elections for union with Los Angeles and Chrysler out the proposed improvements to the harbor, which will cost $10,000,000, or for continuing as separate municipalities. That the vote on the merger question will be large—probably 90 per cent. of the registration—is a foregone conclusion because the question is one that concerns every one in San Pedro and Wilmington. It is, in fact, the most vital issue ever submitted to residents in those cities. In both San Pedro and Wilmington opposition to consolidation has made itself felt in some quarters, but friends of the movement are prepared to fight to the last ditch. Chairman Fleming of the Consolidation Campaign Committee went to San Pedro yesterday to study the situation. Last night he expressed himself as well pleased with the outlook, but said he does not intend to relax vigilance in any direction until the last vote is counted after the second election. Wilmington occupies the center of the stage at present, for the election in that city will take place on August 4. The campaign has been splendidly launched there, and supporters of union with Los Angeles are confident of success at the polls. Saturday evening a mass meeting will be held at the Wilmington Town Hall, the first of the campaign. It will be an extremely interesting one and is expected to give a great boost to consolidation. The members of the Wilmington Consolidation Committee will go down in a body, leaving Los Angeles at 8:30 o'clock on a Pacific Electric car, and will be accompanied by members of the Chamber of Commerce, City Council, Merchants' and Manufacturers' Association, Municipal League, Jobbers' Association and others interested. San Pedro, too, will be represented by its Consolidation Committee. The speakers will include Standard Jess. A. Fleming, Joseph Scott and M. P. Snyder of Los Angeles. Every voter in San Pedro and Wilmington will have an opportunity to hear exactly what consolidation will mean through the medium of booklets, which are now being sent out by the Campaign Committee in this city. These contain the full report of the committee recommending the expenditure of $10,000,000 on the harbor, and also the endorsement of the San Pedro and Wilmington committees, and the City Council and civic bodies of Los Angeles.

CITY THAT IS LOST.

Los Angeles Woman Bids Secretary of State to Help Her Locate "East Greenwich." Mrs. D. A. Creighton of No. 1040 West Eighth street has enlisted the cooperation of the Secretary of State in her quest for a lost California city. She wants to know the location of East Greenwich.

Her description of the place is: One main street, seven saloons, two general merchandise stores, one Mayor, one Deputy Sheriff, eighty-eight citizens. Mrs. Creighton's letter is the strangest document on file at the Secretary's office. It tells of a half-century search for a city that has dropped out of sight. "In the history of this State, do you know of any city named East Greenwich?" she asks. "I have been trying to trace a party who went there fifty years ago, but I can't find the place. Perhaps the name has been changed." John Hoenes, next in authority to Secretary Curry, has scrutinized the records, but can find nothing even approximating the name. "East Greenwich," it now remains for some old-timer to come forward with information.

GRAVEL CAR'S DANCE.

Leaves Santa Fe Tracks While Train Is Traveling Fast and Blocks Traffic. Because of a wreck on the Santa Fe at Avenue 41, traffic was delayed for eight hours and passenger train No. 2, which left the city at 8 o'clock night before last, was obliged to go by way of Orange, making it an hour and a half behind schedule time. The wreck resulted when a gravel car, in the middle of a heavy ballast train, left the track while the train was proceeding at a rapid rate. It bumped along the ties, tearing up rails and roadbed for several hundred feet before the drivers of the two engines realized that something was wrong and shut off steam. The accident happened at 7:45 o'clock. No one was hurt, but repairs were expensive. It was necessary to reballast the damaged roadbed and lay new rails. Traffic was resumed early yesterday morning.

PRISONER FOILED.

Hides Under Bed in Receiving Hospital, But Discovered by Nurses. Back in Cell. Willard Beebe, arrested Monday afternoon on a charge of burglary, and locked up at the City Jail, made an attempt to escape last night. Beebe was taken from his cell during the evening and paraded before all the officers before they were sent to their beds. In the confusion he slipped into the Receiving Hospital, stole a hypodermic syringe and some morphine tablets, and rolled under one of the beds to await an opportunity of making his escape. When it was found that his cell was empty, a search was instituted. A nurse in the hospital discovered the man, who was locked up again.

NEGOTIATING HOTEL SALE.

Deal for Transfer of the Van Nuys to Florida Man Pending.

Tentative negotiations have been entered into between E. L. Potter of Florida and Milo M. Potter, proprietor of the Hotel Van Nuys, for the sale of the hotel to the former. It is understood that the price practically agreed upon is between $100,000 and $125,000; this being for the furnishings and the good will only of the Van Nuys—the building is not for sale. Milo M. Potter, who is at the Hotel Santa Barbara, stated by long-distance telephone last night that he has received no money as yet, and can neither affirm nor deny the report, except to say that he has been approached by a man named Potter from Florida with an offer for the Van Nuys. Unusual coincidences are noted in the negotiations, in that the prospective buyer bears the same name as the present owner; comes from the same State and for the same purpose; the latter originally came, and from the same cause. Milo M. Potter started for California in 1885 for the reason that his hotel in Florida was destroyed by fire, and the same thing has happened to E. L. Potter. That's why he wants to locate here. E. L. Potter could not be located last night. It is understood the deal is held in abeyance pending the arrangement of minor details.

COMBINING CHARITY.

Acting Secretary of the M. and M. Association Recommends Indorsement by Associated Charities.

The meeting of the Charity Conference Committee yesterday resulted in the passage of rigid resolutions with reference to their indorsement of any organization seeking to raise funds in the city. This committee is composed of the presidents and secretaries, or duly authorized representatives, of the charitable and philanthropic institutions of Los Angeles. Its principal object being to save money to the merchants and business men of the city and at the same time to do good in the worthy cases of distress. Perry W. Weidner, acting secretary of the Merchants and Manufacturers' Association, read a paper at yesterday's meeting, in which he outlined some of the abuses that grew out of an indiscriminate giving of money to whomever would ask in the name of charity. Among other things, Mr. Weidner said: "One object of this association is to save its merchants from ruinous influences, such as fake advertising schemes and fake solicitations generally." "He referred to an instance which occurred several years ago, in which it was discovered that 75 per cent. of the money collected went to salaries, and children were being fed and cared for at greater expense than we could have kept them at the Alexandria Hotel." "Some institutions," he said, speaking of a time when the Merchants and Manufacturers' Association made an inspection, "collected as high as $25,000, and paid 90 per cent. to superintendents, assistant superintendents and other officers, and only 10 per cent. was applied to the children." He said the merchant was invariably the first person approached, and he sometimes subscribed to several charities in one day, but would much rather give all he could afford for the year, at one time. He urged the union of all societies, under the Associated Charities; an inspection of the books once a year, of every society seeking indorsement to solicit aid, and that the indorsement of the Associated Charities under such a system would be helpful and satisfactory to the merchants. The Charity Conference Committee, representing as it does all the charitable institutions of the city, took the action suggested, and will at once communicate with all commercial organizations and request their cooperation in carrying out the plan. Secretary Spencer K. Sewall of the Associated Charities is secretary of the Conference Committee.

LIEUTENANT IN COMMAND.

Takes Charge of Naval Recruiting Station and Is Delighted to Be Here. Lieut. A. Staton, U.S.N., late of the U.S.S. Yorktown, the "mother ship" of the Pacific torpedo flotilla, arrived in Los Angeles yesterday afternoon, and took charge of the local naval recruiting station. He succeeds Lieutenant-Commander P. M. Oimsted, who has been ordered to the cruiser Tennessee as navigating officer, and who will leave this morning for Washington to report to the Secretary of the Navy before joining his ship at San Francisco. "I think I am to be congratulated on having been assigned to this station," said Lieut. Staton, who is registered at the Hotel Van Nuys. "Some of the best men we have in the navy came from the Pacific Coast, and I have hopes that the officers will continue to make a good showing. "We have nearly as many men as we need, large numbers having enlisted during the presence of the fleet in these waters. The physical requirements of recruits are now a little more stringent than formerly, but this does not render the advantages offered by a term of service any less alluring. It ought to be easy for the boys of California to come up to the naval standard."

THE PRISONER.

Mrs. Gertrude Driggs tried the charge of having uttered a forged document, purporting to give a lease and option to acreage at the Palms, was continued in the Superior Court yesterday.

The defendant's coqueness and cheekiness won the admiration even of the attorneys for the prosecution.

Judge Harvey yesterday heard an action brought to recover money invested in the Palms. Light and Water Company yesterday.

Charles A. Martin, the convicted Monrovia bank robber, is applying for probation, and judgment in his case was suspended for two days.

The sentences of Sundin and Beatty were also postponed.

J. B. Sloan, a Los Angeles broker, brought an action for $100,000 damages against the American National Bank on the ground of alleged malicious arrest and prosecution.

The will of Joseph Gaylord Smith was offered for probate yesterday. He bequeathed $25,000 to his sons, daughters-in-law and grandchildren.

AT THE CITY HALL.

UNIONITE BOSS MAKES ROAR.

BARBER AGITATOR INSULTS MEMBERS OF COUNCIL.

Because He Does Not Like the Men Named on a Committee to Consider Sanitary Measures, Fleder, Earl Conquest of Whole Council, Yonkin Replies.

Because he didn't like the committee named by President Pease to consider a harbor ordinance, Fleder, the blatant secretary of the Barbers' Union, abused Councilman Yonkin personally on the floor yesterday, and had to be silenced by the chairman's gavel, amidst protests from other Councilmen.

The ordinance proposed by Fleder, paid agitator for a union composed of sailors and barbers, and supported by Engle, president of the unionists' association, was up for consideration, and the Council referred it to a committee composed of three members of the City Legislature, the City Attorney, a member of the Board of Health and a boss and journeyman barber.

President Pease appointed Yonkin, Clampt and Dremgold as the Council members, and Fleder roared. He said that the committee was composed of "a bunch of scoundrels" and that Yonkin would not, he knew, give the unionists a square deal.

Dremgold protested against this language, and President Pease told Fleder to take his remarks outside. Fleder, however, continued to roar, other members intervened.

Yonkin said he did not care a rap whether the ordinance was passed, but he did not propose to submit to the dictation of one or two men who claimed to have hundreds behind them. He said no one but Fleder had ever invaded the Council with demands for harbor legislation.

"If this man has anything to quarrel with me about," said Yonkin, "let him bring it up here. I'll meet him outside, and I'll talk to him in another way."

When order was restored business proceeded, and Fleder and Engle left. Fleder has been persistent in invading the Council chamber and assuming the right to dictate to the members. The ordinance now asked for provides for a license of $1 a year on all harbor shops and restaurants some measure of regulation. It was the merest makeshift, and the Council is opposed to it, but is willing to consider an ordinance that will provide for sanitary inspection and impose a license fee that will make the inspection self-supporting.

The independent barbers, who greatly outnumber those represented by Fleder, will have representation on the committee. But it is not likely that any ordinance will be passed that will put a weapon in the hands of the unionists, as the Council members are sincerely willing to do for political purposes.

BACTERIA MILLIONS.

WHAT MILK SAMPLES SHOW.

A cubic centimeter of milk contains fifteen drops, and that quantity contains 1,000,000 bacteria, which would cause most anybody except experienced health officers to get panicky.

According to the results of the first bacteria count of the Board of Health, reported at yesterday's meeting of the bacteriologist Durfee, one sample was high. Anything over 500,000 bacteria to the cubic centimeter is deemed unwholesome, and as the sample in question was the highest of twenty-nine samples, out of forty-eight taken, the board thought it hardly the pasteurized milk it was advertised to be.

Nineteen samples ran in excess of 500,000 bacteria. Eighteen were below the standard maximum.

The City Chemist's report as to the solid contents of a real test of the milk delivered in Los Angeles, but it shows that there is lack of care in handling it which the board will seek to rectify, at least of the millions of bacteria may have been lactical acid products, multiplied by age and not by deleterious character alone.

The milk supplied is about as good as any other city gets and the death rate for infants under 2 years—11 per 1000—is as low as any city in the country. But still the health authorities do not regard millions of bacteria as wholesome and will require an improvement in handling, especially as samples from one of the largest creameries run high in the tests. But judgment will be suspended until three or four counts have been made. The inspectors are to take samples from creameries and wagons daily for a long time yet before the test will be complete.

The board decided yesterday to ask the Council for $500 as an emergency fund during the coming year. Often small articles are needed in emergencies and the board thinks such a fund would facilitate work.

SHERMAN CASE.

COUNCIL POSTPONES ACTION.

The Mayor sent a message to the Council yesterday urging the removal of Gen. M. H. Sherman from the War Board, because of a technicality.

CAT LET OUT OF THE BAG; CITY TO HANDLE THE DOG.

ANIMAL COMMISSION?

LIKE the monkey in Aesop's fable of the cat and the cheese, the Council heard the Humane Animal League and the S.P.C.A. dispute over the dog-pound contract and then decided to share both organizations out.

The two organizations were bidding for part of the $24,000 income from dog licenses and the final bid of the S.P.C.A. was 47 1/2 per cent. of the income.

But the Council made rapid mental calculation and determined that the future peace and prosperity of the canine population of Los Angeles should be the business of public officials, to be known as the Humane or Animal Commission, and that incidentally, a little more, say a few thousands, might be saved for the automobile fund.

It had been arranged to postpone the request of the Humane Animal League for a renewal of its contract, now disputed in court, until the council decides the test case, but everybody interested in dogs, and particularly the rich dog fanciers, were anxious to get the matter decided.

So the Council spent an hour and a half hearing speeches and gradually changing its mind until the climax came.

After John O. Roemer had defended the league and the council, the council decided to submit the one question—whether the dog pound should be run by the city or the S.P.C.A.—to a commission to be named by the council.

N. W. Zimmer, for the S.P.C.A., submitted a proposal to assume all the work now done by the league for 47 1/2 per cent. of the income from dog licenses and all the pound fees. The league now receives 50 per cent.

"I see the cat is out of the bag," said Councilman Lyon. It's the money that is making this fight, and that is what I have contended for since somebody was interested in stirring up the fight on the dog pound.

In the city charter forbidding any city officer to have an interest in a contract with the city, the council decided there is no imputation of official misconduct on his part; but the charter provision, Section 10, simply renders him ineligible to hold said office.

In the message the Mayor also said he is in favor of the S.P.C.A. and that he will submit the name of Henry T. Lee as Sherman's successor.

Because Gen. Sherman is out of the city, action was deferred for a week.

Tax Collector's Case.

The Council spent an hour yesterday hearing "testimony" in support of the Mayor's charges that the City Tax and License Collector was interfering with the police in enforcing the license ordinance. Chief Dismann and two of his plain-clothes men told what they had heard from others, and then the investigation was postponed until the afternoon when it was again postponed until Monday morning.

Consolidation Sale.

Fourteen saloon permits and three restaurant liquor permits are fixed as the maximum for the portion of Ocean Boulevard to be south of Wilmington street and the Salt Works road. This means that the saloons, wholesale houses and restaurants of San Pedro and Wilmington are to be consolidated.

At present status when the consolidation election is over next month. The ordinance so committing the city was passed by the Council yesterday and is expected to have its influence for the success of the election at both San Pedro and Wilmington. It also means that the city will have two saloons, the former and two in the latter, and no more.

AT THE COURTHOUSE.

HER SANGFROID MUCH ADMIRER.

WOMAN ACCUSED OF PORGERY SEEMS UNCONCERNED.

Executor of Late Palms Land Owner's Estate Testifies Signature on Deed Purporting to Give Lease to Large Acreage is Not Genuine. Statement Corroborated.

Even the attorneys for the prosecution were compelled, yesterday, to admire the sangfroid of Mrs. Gertrude Driggs, who is on trial before Judge Davis in the Superior Court, charged with having uttered a false document in forging the name of the late John J. Charnock to a lease and option on 137 acres of valuable land near the Palms.

In spite of the testimony, completed yesterday, of Attorney Charles W. Ackerman, alleged former confederate of Mrs. Driggs, and of her own statements at her preliminary examination, the defendant was as "sangfroid" as a mockingbird. She sat beside the handsome actress, her daughter, and conducted herself as if she was occupying a reserved seat at a comic-opera performance.

The most important witness of the day for the prosecution was Chester R. Smead, executor of the Charnock estate, which, he testified, is valued at $122,000. He asserted the part claimed by Mrs. Driggs, under the lease and option she claims the late Mr. Charnock gave her, is approximately worth $125,000.

Deputy Dist. Atty. Ford and Attorney Walter Bass and Mr. Smead identified the genuine signature of Charnock on checks. Former Judge Noyes and Attorneys Johnstone Jones and R. C. Coleman, attorneys for Mrs. Driggs, under the lease and option she claims the late Mr. Charnock gave her, is approximately worth $125,000.

One of the interesting bits of evidence introduced by the prosecution as tending to show that Mr. Charnock could not have intended to give a lease to Mrs. Driggs was the testimony by Mr. Smead that on February 1 last the land-owner made a present, practically to his niece, Lillian Charnock, of the tract at issue.

Assistant Cashier Wade of the First National Bank testified that he had seen Mr. Charnock on a number of checks and that he asserted that the one on the lease is a forgery.

As a bank clerk, and John J. Rheinlander, who had been a friend of Charnock for forty years.

Also R. R. Roddy, a photographer, submitted enlarged photographs of the signatures on the lease and checks for comparison.

Former Judge Noyes made a most ingenious defense. He apparently contended that Charnock signed the lease to Mrs. Driggs while in a cramped po-breath of the spectators in the courtroom yesterday.

Since Sundin and Beatty testified against Martin, the bitterest feeling has existed between them. And it is not likely that they will be sent to one prison and Sundin and Beatty to another.

HEAVY DAMAGES.

DEMANDED BY BROKER. A suit asking for a judgment of $100,000 against the American National Bank for alleged malicious arrest and prosecution, was instituted in the Superior Court yesterday by J. B. Sloan, a broker. Sloan was charged with having uttered a forged document of the bank by a hocus-pocus draft. This suit is a come-back.

COURTHOUSE NOTES.

BREVITIES MISCELLANEOUS. PETITIONS TO MORTGAGE. The Union Avenue M. E. Church filed a petition in the Superior Court yesterday for leave to mortgage lots 2 and 4, block 8, Highland tract addition, to the German-American Savings Bank for $4000.

It is desired to use the money for the erection of a church. The petition is signed by W. L. Black, H. L. Houck, Frank W. Hoyer, A. W. Stevens, George Sopp, E. Coleman and J. H. Watson, officers and trustees.

WANTS GOODS OR MONEY. Ira H. Stubbs brought an action yesterday against S. V. Murphy, alleging that plaintiff had been sold eight boxes of dry goods, clothing and shoes at No. 42 North Main street, now held by the defendant, who refuses to give him possession. Stubbs asks that Murphy pay him $2000, the alleged value of the goods, and in addition he asks for $300 for damages and costs of suit.

JUDGE CLARK IN TOWN. Judge Clark of Ventura is presiding in Department Nine the remainder of the week. He is a former judge of the county, who has gone to Santa Barbara to complete unfinished business that accumulated during a former visit of the judge to that court.

INCORPORATIONS. Papers of the following incorporations were filed in the office of the County Clerk yesterday: Vall Motor Car Company, capital stock $25,000, by Walter L. Clark, Clarence H. Crawford, N. R. Vail and J. V. Vickers; Griffin Trunk Company, capital stock $25,000, by W. E. Bessley, J. H. Griffin and George J. Sleson; J. H. Bessley Berry and Produce Company, capital stock $25,000, by J. E. Bessley, R. H. Owen, Jr., Felix Lawrence, H. M. Seely and Felix Owen.

THE INFERIOR COURTS.

JUSTICE SPARES YOUNG WOMEN.

TELL THEIR STORIES PRIVATELY IN HIS CHAMBERS. Witnesses Against Man Accused of Poising as Doctor and of Making Improper Proposals—Police Captain as Prosecutor—Landlady Accuses Roomers of Theft.

When the Police Court were entertained by the proceedings before Justice Frederickson, yesterday, in the case of John Chambers, charged with vagrancy.

Private examination of witnesses by the court and the acting of a police captain as a prosecuting attorney were features.

Chambers was accused of having poised a room in a downtown building, and of making improper proposals to a young woman as an assistant, and made improper proposals to applicants.

Police Captain Dixon presented the evidence. He called officers and questioned witnesses for the prosecution. He also appeared as complaining witness. The complaint originally was given to Patrolman Parker, but the latter's name was erased before the examination and the name of the captain substituted.

When the question was asked, "Why did not the women petition for the complaint?" the court was told they had refused to do so. It was then that Dixon stepped into the breach.

Two of the women, to whom Chambers was said to have made proposals, were called to the witness stand. Justice Frederickson, where he took their testimony. The prisoner did not hear it, but the justice stated, later, that the man had waived the right to do so.

The names of the witnesses were not included in the official record and the court attorneys and the police refused to divulge them.

The wife of the defendant testified publicly. She was called by Dixon and asked to tell her story. While her body was shaken with sobs, she told of the loyalty of her husband toward her and of the happy married life. She said he had told her of the actions which had caused his arrest, reserving nothing.

Mrs. Chambers had testified, the police captain asked clemency for the defendant on her account. When the court asked the prisoner if he had anything to say, he replied: "Everything has been said that can be said, I guess. I do not know why I made the proposals with which I am charged."

Justice Frederickson deferred sentence until this afternoon at 2 o'clock. Bail was fixed at $300, which was furnished by Mrs. Chambers and a friend. Husband and wife left the courtroom together.

Attempt to Bribe?

George P. Arnerich, proprietor of the Good Fellows Grotto, will be given his preliminary hearing this morning before Justice Ross. He is charged with having offered $100 to Patrolman Brown to quash a charge against him of violation of the liquor laws.

Ladly Accused.

Miss Ida Parker and Mrs. A. V. Weiler, roomers at an apartment house conducted by Mrs. Irene Grove at No. 1205 Maple avenue, were arrested yesterday morning on battery warrants sworn to by Mrs. Grove. The landlady charges that her roomers stole silks and laces from her and that when she accused them of theft, they beat her severely. Arraigned in the Police Court, the defendants pleaded not guilty. Their examinations will be held Thursday before Justice Frederickson.

Building Food For Boys & Girls.

Teach the youngsters the right principles of life. The growth and development of children depend upon the kind of food they eat.

Any doctor will tell you that food largely governs the growth of the body, mental energy, and the capacity to resist sickness.

The percentage of body-building elements in food is various. Bread contains 6 1/2 to 8 1/2 per cent—Eggs 12 per cent—Beefsteak 20 per cent, while Snider Pork & Beans contain 23 to 25 per cent. These are scientific facts, and guesswork. Therefore it will be seen that children can get no better food than

Snider Pork & Beans

The exclusive "Snider-Process" eliminates the cross fibre, colicky gas—makes beans mellow and porous so they absorb freely the juices of the stomach and are perfectly digested. This removes the objection to beans cooked in the ordinary way—

"It's the Process"

Snider Pork and Beans comply with all pure food laws of the world. Grocers are authorized to refund your money if, after eating the first can, you say they are not the finest looking, and most delicious Pork and Beans you ever tasted.

EVENTS IN LOCAL SOCIETY.

MR. AND MRS. L. E. GRIGSBY of No. 622 West Adams street have returned from a seven months' tour of the world. In Japan they were dinner guests of the American Ambassador, Hon. Thomas J. O'Brien. In Africa they took photographs of Col. Roosevelt and party. Easter Sunday was spent in Jerusalem. FACTS, FEATURES AND FANCIES FOR WOMEN

BY MISS SYDNEY FORD.

Now's a very good time to pick up little souvenirs and odds and ends for Christmas. The aftermath of the Elmer convention leaves a big supply of pretty and inexpensive souvenirs which are just now being offered at cut rates. Many of them have no special Elmer significance, beyond the purple color. For instance, I noticed in the windows of an art store yesterday some of the loveliest blotters I have seen in many a day, embellished with hand-painted pages, iris or violet motifs, and with appropriate quotations done in handsome lettering. There were also many of hand-painted wall mottoes, which are always charming for little anniversary remembrances, and a two-bit piece would purchase any one of them.

Adjustable Perch Chair.

In the window of the same establishment I noticed an adjustable perch or lawn chair, with an awning overhead, which appeared to me as a wonderfully comfortable sort of arrangement. It is made on a frame of some sort of light wood, on the plan of the ordinary steamer chair, and is perfectly adjustable. You sit down in it and, by stretching out the chair follows your movements and adjusts itself to whatever position you assume. But the delightful part of it is the awning which stretches overhead. You may place your chair on the sands at the beach, or out on the sunny lawn, and yet be perfectly protected from the sun by this awning, which is in the soft tones of green that always so rest the eyes.

A Woman's Invention.

A woman has invented a device essential to the protection and welfare of the window shade which compels it to hang straight and slide up and down with the utmost precision. During Elmer week you might have noticed a young woman clad all in white, with purple tie, demonstrating in the window of one of the big furniture houses on Spring street this guide for shades. We all know the annoyance we have suffered from window shades which persisted in running crooked, fraying the edges, crowding the end of the roller or slipping entirely from the strap and flying to the top with a snap, which frayed our temper even more than the edge of the curtain. These little appliances are exceedingly simple, in fact, so very simple that one has the impulse to say, "Why didn't I think of that?" There are two small, stamped, one-piece metal devices, which are fastened to the window casings about half an inch below each end of the roller. The shade slides through these guides and is compelled to wind straight, with no possibility of crowding over the end of the roller and tearing its edges, or slipping from one's grasp and hopping over the roller, thereby endangering the spring. The guides also hold the shade close to the window casings, doing away with the necessity of pinning them to keep out the light, and also preventing that disagreeable flapping when a draught of air happens to be blowing through the room. The guides may be had in any finish—oxidized, dull or bright copper, gun metal or brass—to harmonize with the interior of the room.

A Silk Rug.

Have you seen that wonderful silk oriental rug in the windows of the same furniture store? It's well worth a trip downtown, for there is but one more rug in the world like this—and that belongs to King Edward, if you please. This beautiful rug is handwoven, of pure silk, and was made in Caesarea, Turkey. It is known as the "hemisphere rug," because it has for its motif the two hemispheres, perfectly portraied. The colorings are exquisite and the fine, soft, silken texture is quite fit for the King of England to set his royal foot upon. The price of this rug—the mate to King Edward's—is, if you must have it, just $550.

Vest Pocket Edition.

I happened to be with a friend on a street car the other day and while the conductor came along she slipped out from her glove the tiniest purse I ever beheld. "It holds just ten dimes or one dollar," she explained, "and it is the handiest thing I ever possessed. Where did I get it? Oh, at one of the big curio stores downtown. The whole affair was not bigger than a silver dollar in diameter."

Have you noticed what charming vest-pocket editions of standard poets and writers are brought out, now-a-days? Bound in soft leather or Morocco, one may have complete sets of Shakespeare, or "Words of Wisdom" from Seneca, Emerson and a host of well-known writers. The uniform price of these tiny 2x3-inch editions is two bits apiece, and they may be had separately or in sets.

How to Clean Jewels.

With the tremendous vogue for semi-precious stones now with it, it is necessary to know how to keep these mock jewels clean and bright. The average woman usually seems to think that her expensive jewelry is in good condition, but the less costly trinkets are seldom considered in the same way. Special care and when worthy of any special care, the stones dull the ornaments are frequently thrown away. Such neglect is a waste of money, for semi-precious stones can be made to retain their luster, and tarnished metals be given brilliancy by simple methods.

Beginning with rhinestones, which are perhaps the most popular of the general wear—though jet is a close rival just now. A jeweler says: "The best way to clean these is by rubbing them with a piece of fine sandpaper. For the reason that each rhinestone is tipped at the back with a substitute that gives it its brilliancy. If you wash, of course, each time the ornament is washed a little of this dressing rubs off."

This is one of the instances where too much care is detrimental. An occasional bath is good, but a brush should not be used on the back of the ornament. After washing in lukewarm, soapy water, the trinkets should be rinsed in clear water and dried with a soft cloth and then dropped in a box filled with sawdust.

When clean they must be taken out and instantly dropped into soapy water to wash out all traces of the cyanide. The silversmith who furnished this information strongly emphasized the word "instantly," and added that it is better not to put one's hands in the cyanide solution, especially if there are abrasions. The ornaments can be taken out with the handle of a toothbrush. The same authority says that this is also a quick and easy process for cleaning badly tarnished table silverware, but that he always hesitates to recommend it because the average woman would want to put all the pieces in the solution at the same time, she takes them out, when all were ready, prepare the soap suds for rinsing. This would be fatal for one piece can be done at a time successfully.

Jet may be cleaned by rubbing with a clean cloth on which are a few drops of oil. Mock deer dog collars should be cleaned with cold water always, though there is no objection to their being dried with a soft cloth and finished in the washstand box. Cheap jewelry should never be cleaned in warm water because the stones are really only glued in, not set, as in metal. These trinkets are made abroad and women are employed for grilling. For cleaning gold ornaments or settings, nothing is better than a piece of chamomile and a sprinkling of jeweler's powder.

Buttons and Bodices. Chemises are made mostly in the princess cut, fitting the figure most carefully and being long enough to do away with the need for an extra belt.

There is a vogue for more or less plain skirts worn with bodices of all-over embroidery, or trimmed with lace or braid, or both.

Russet leather and bronze calfskin for little tots suggest sandals for leather and bronze calfskin during the summer.

Black rajah is one of the most stylish materials for those in mourning. It is cool, and at the same time is excellent for traveling purposes. To go with the black there is a collar in which the half is ported in the middle, with the wide Rosamer chignon and the full puff at the side. The modified kimono, which is the old wrapper with a Japanese touch in the sleeve and a wide, edged around the neck and downward, remains a favorite for bedroom wear.

A Phenomenal Week's Business

Though extra help has been provided in all departments and in some doubtful cases, the Elmer convention has given them their turn at the counter, an opportunity to become the 300—the seating capacity of the Broadway store.

Praise and commendation heard on all sides—from the unified banker from the cosmopolitan, classed from New York, the millionaire, the milliner, the Cincinnati, and the "buck" from Indianapolis, agreeing with the rest of the "everywhere" from a new store at 6th and was a marvel and something of its kind in this bar none.

They admired the coloring, the beautiful selection from the store, any, the softly-thatched, the banquet hall and the French and Dutch commended the way they were handled and sold.

We are proud of our record of our having over 6000 Elms at and turned some stores.

Come again, Bro. always welcome.

PASADENA. EXPLAIN WHY THEY ELOPED.

WISHED TO AVOID OPPOSITION, DELAY AND FUSS.

Young People Who Were Secretly Wedded Spend Few Days in Seclusion at Redondo Beach, But Now Are Guests at the Home of the Bridegroom's Father.

Office of The Times, No. 24 S. Raymond Ave. PASADENA, July 20.—Jesse C. Wynkoop and his bride, Miss Floy M. French, who stole a march on their parents and friends last Saturday by getting married, returned last evening and are visiting for a few days at the home of Mr. and Mrs. M. F. Wynkoop, No. 311 Oaklawn ave.

The couple were married Saturday noon by Rev. Mr. Atkinson, presiding elder of the First Methodist Church of Los Angeles, and immediately went to Redondo Beach, where they spent their short honeymoon in seclusion. The young people give as their reason for the elopement that they wished to avoid any possible opposition or delay and the fuss of a home wedding. Little worry was experienced by the parents over the few days of indefinite knowledge of the wedding. NO OPPOSITION.

It has been claimed that Assistant City Attorney Homburger and some of the City Councilmen are opposed to the proposed deed to Tournament Park filed with the city by Simpson, Moody & Simpson for the directors of the Tournament of Roses Association. The contention is that as the association holds a lease of the premises for an annual fête for twenty-five years, the city will not have full control of the park, and that "there is no telling what the city might want to do with the park in the next quarter of a century."

This attitude was flatly denied last night by George P. Carr, president of the association, and by Mayor Earley. At the annual meeting of the association held three months ago the matter was fully discussed and it was decided that a clause should be inserted in the lease providing that if the annual Tournament of Roses was not given for three consecutive years the lease would be null and void. "If that clause is not in the lease, there certainly will be no objection to putting it in," said Carr last night.

The whole transfer is for the purpose of clearing a cloud from the title to the old grounds which were donated to the city almost ten years ago. The association now offers to clear the title and also deed approximately nine additional acres provided it may have the use of the park for such a time each year as is necessary to prepare for and give the fête, and provided the city improves the park and makes it public. Mayor Earley believes the matter will go through.

BOAT STRIKES REEF. ANGELENOS ARE RESCUED FROM SINKING LAUNCH.

A VALON, July 20.—Flying signals of distress, and with their launch, Mr. and Mrs. W. Robinson of the Boston store, were picked up off the west end of San Clemente Island by Capt. George Roman of the launch Ramona early this morning. On board the sinking launch with Mr. and Mrs. Robinson were C. H. Knapp of Los Angeles, and H. C. Davidson, of Los Angeles.

A large hole had been stove in the hull of the launch as it had passed over a sunken reef. At the time of the mishap Mr. Robinson was steering, while Capt. Roman was attempting to make out details of the engine-room. The launch was abandoned and the party arrived safely at Avalon from Clemente late this evening. They are now quartered at the Metropole. Three days ago Mr. and Mrs. Robinson, Mr. Knapp and Mr. Davidson, as their guests, chartered the launch for a trip to Clemente. They were in search of blue fin tuna.

Owing to the fact that Mr. Robinson was steering against the sun, he did not see the reef on which the launch struck. The boat will probably be a total wreck. An effort will be made to raise it. The launch was valued at $3000. During the trip the party caught several varieties of large fish, including sea bass, yellowtail and albacore.

With his feet burning and not knowing why, he put his hands down into the fire.

EAST SAN PEDRO. Question of Disposition of Municipal Property on Terminal Island.

SAN PEDRO, July 20.—The trustees today decided that it might be a waste of time to confer with the City Council of Long Beach over the disposition of certain municipal property on Terminal Island before the consolidation election August 12. City Attorney Steigitz informed the trustees that he had arranged for a conference for next Monday.

"Why not wait until after August 12?" asked Trustee Peck. "What's the use of spending time settling up affairs that may not concern us after that?" Peck's suggestion prevailed and his motion that the conference be postponed until after the consolidation election was carried. The trustees at East San Pedro, who will all have a vote at the consolidation election, are divided in opinion as to whether the city should purchase the island or whether it should be sold to the private owner.

One of the questions arising from the previous jurisdiction of Long Beach as city terminal island was whether San Pedro is that of personal taxes for the ensuing year already collected by the city. The amount is about $3000, according to City Assessor Pearson, who asked for instructions from the trustees. The trustees have not yet decided whether they are liable for these taxes unless he takes steps to enforce collection. A man who has paid taxes to Long Beach refused to pay them again, yet Pearson has nothing to show that they have been collected. The City Attorney advises that they be carried on the books as uncollected.

BURBANK. BURBANK, July 20.—The funeral of A. B. Cameron was held here this afternoon from the home on Palm avenue. At 1 o'clock yesterday a man was taken with a stroke of paralysis which resulted in his death at 3 o'clock. He came with his wife and son to this place from Ennis, Mont., about three months ago, and was perfectly strong before he had the stroke. He was the son-in-law of Capt. A. H. Rich of the fire.

Rev. F. Pomeroy has commenced the erection of a modern bungalow on his property on Avenue 10. The Burbank Woman's Christian Temperance Union held a county training school under the leadership of the Los Angeles county officers in the rear of the M. E. church today.

DESIRE LEGAL OPINION. OCEAN PARK, July 20.—The legality of the employment by the municipality of aliens is a subject that has been passed by the City Trustees up to the City Attorney. SANTA MONICA. BAGGAGE STILL WORRY CAUSE.

MATTER IS TAKEN UP WITH LOS ANGELES PACIFIC.

Through Checking to Beach Points Desired, But Company Has Contract With Wells Fargo Which It Is Not Willing to Abrogate—Sunday-school Institute.

SANTA MONICA, July 20.—The City Council has appointed a committee to confer with the Los Angeles Pacific Company in an effort to secure the through checking of baggage to beach points. As it is now, passengers coming to the beach are compelled to pay 75 cents for each trunk. No baggage is carried on passenger tickets, the transportation being either by express or freight.

The committee consists of Mayor Dudley, Alfred M. J. J. Seymour, A. F. Webster and J. M. White. The committee will also endeavor to secure the sale of through tickets to the beach, those having been withdrawn soon after the Southern Pacific's steam road passed by lease under the control of the trolley line.

These two matters have been a source of worry to this beach for more than a year. Both the Southern Pacific and the Los Angeles Pacific have been appealed to for relief, but with no success. The Southern Pacific has replied that since it no longer operates trains to this point it is powerless to act. The general passenger agent said he had taken the matter up with the Los Angeles Pacific, which seemed to be unwilling to give up its contract with the Wells Fargo Company for the handling of the baggage.

The matter rests. The Board of Trade has for some weeks been in session with the Southern Pacific and the Los Angeles Pacific on the same subject and has been advised as follows: "We have the matter now under consideration and will write you within a few days."

SUNDAY-SCHOOL INSTITUTE. The Sunday-school institute will open its summer school at the Episcopal Church tomorrow morning for the second day of session with a discussion by Rev. P. H. Hickman of "Revolution in Sunday Schools." Rev. Charles T. Murphy, will speak on "The Position of the Church Catechism in the Church." Rev. Louis C. Sanford will discuss "The Sunday School and the Eight Missionary Departments and Rev. R. J. Gooden will conduct the final session of the institute.

CLAREMONT AND UPLAND OWNERS ARE GREEDY. Electric Railway Company Will Probably Have to Resort to Contempt Proceedings to Obtain Certain Strips to Complete Its Right-of-Way—Grading Started.

CLAREMONT, July 20.—The contract has been let for grading for the electric railway from Upland to connect with the main line at Pomona. The gangs arrived yesterday, and are now operating between the place and Upland. The right-of-way through Claremont has been deeded and every preparation is being made to facilitate the advent of the cars. Between Upland and Claremont some difficulty has been encountered in securing a right-of-way. One citizen bought a piece of sagebrush land, and in twenty-four hours asked an advance of $50 per acre, for a strip he finally sold for $10. Another property owner is still holding up the Upland end of the line, but it is probable condemnation proceedings will be commenced.

PICO, July 20.—Leroy Broadbent last night killed himself. He had been married for less than a month, and the tragedy took place in the presence of his bride, who was formerly Miss Eva Pickering of Redondo. The young man came to his father's home, where he and his bride were staying, much the worse for liquor. When remonstrated with by his parents, he declared that it was of no use for him to try to quit drinking, and that he would kill himself. After a scuffle in which several shots were fired by the youth, Broadbent put the weapon to his temple and fired, killing himself instantly.

His young wife and his parents witnessed the tragedy and are nearly prostrated with grief. The coroner will hold an inquest tomorrow morning at Whittier, whither the body was taken.

CONFER ON DUST.

Cement Nuisance at Colton to Be the Subject of Consideration at Meeting.

Colton, July 20.—Another important step has been taken by property owners and orange growers in the vicinity of the California Portland Cement plant for the suppression of the cement dust nuisance which has for so long been a menace to a large area in that section. As stated yesterday, between twenty-five and thirty property owners appeared before the Board of Education at San Bernardino, and were allowed a reduction averaging about 25 per cent. in their assessments, because the property is depreciated in value by reason of the damage done by the cement dust. This change will probably mean heavier assessments for the property owners throughout the county.

The infected district extends one mile and two miles north of the cement plant. These property owners are now strongly organized for the purpose of attempting to suppress the nuisance. A committee will meet T. J. Fleming, superintendent of the cement plant, and other officers of the company, and it is thought the matter will be amicably settled.

STORY APPEARS PECULIAR NOW.

MAN WHO FLASHED CURRENCY IS IN JAIL.

Bartender Who Declared That New York Uncle Sam His Wife Over Thirty Thousand Dollars in Bills Is Said to Have Deserted Woman. Collision Victims Improve.

San Diego, July 20.—Bert Gilbert, now in the Los Angeles jail as a fugitive wanted in Auburn, Cal., came into prominence here last January when he announced that he had been raised from a humble position to comparative opulence by the receipt of $25,000 in currency, a New Year's gift from an uncle of his wife in New York.

Credence to the story was given at the time for the reason that Gilbert purported to show papers and letters in which the gift was mentioned. He also displayed a roll of bills to his acquaintances, but declared his intention of continuing his avocation as a bartender. Possibly through necessity Gilbert continued to serve drinks up to a short time ago, when he was a woman named Miller, who lived on a ranch with her husband and three children. Gilbert became infatuated with her and it is alleged induced her to leave her home and go to Los Angeles with him. Gilbert was charged with being a fugitive from justice, it having been sent here by the authorities at Auburn.

BANK AUTHORIZED. The Comptroller of the Currency today authorized the Marine National Bank of San Diego to begin business with a capital of $100,000. G. W. Fishburn is president and F. A. Garretson, vice-president.

WRECK VICTIMS IMPROVE. The remains of Mrs. N. G. Hudson, who died from injuries received in the collision between a gasoline motor car and a sight-seeing automobile yesterday, were sent to Los Angeles today, in charge of L. J. Hubbard, son-in-law of deceased. Mrs. Hubbard, who was badly injured, is expected to recover and will be taken to her home by a local hospital within a few days. Mrs. Hudson died from concussion of the brain. Her daughter, Mrs. E. B. Stewart, wife of the local Santa Fe agent, is still in a serious condition. Her shoulder was broken and she was cut and bruised all over the body. Chautauque Howard McCann was hurt about the head, but not seriously. He declares it was the duty of the engineer of the motor train to stop up at the crossing and that had he done so the chauffeur would have had plenty of time to take his automobile across the track.

CALLS FOR BIDS. Plans for the San Diego State Normal Training School have been completed by State Engineer Ellery, who will soon advertise for bids on the construction of the building. The structure will be a class A building of reinforced concrete. It will be two stories high and will contain eight classrooms. The State Legislature appropriated $250,000 for the building, and $50,000 for construction and $500 for equipment.

AUTOISTS BEWARE. The Town Trustees of Coronado yesterday adopted an ordinance regulating the speed of automobiles, motorcycles or other vehicles to fifteen miles per hour in any part of the city. A maximum penalty of $500 is provided for. As there are many fine boulevards in Coronado the temptation to speed is so great that the authorities decided to put a curb on those who are inclined to be reckless.

PERRIS. On July 20, by the almost unanimous vote of 3 to 1, the electors of the Union High School district have voted bonds in the sum of $100,000 for a new high school building. The attendance has grown rapidly during the year, and the school trustees have selected a desirable site and erected a first-class building of brick or concrete that will be an ornament to the town.

The trustees of the school district have elected as teachers for the coming year Miss Prudence P. Faddis of Los Angeles, teacher of the grammar grades; Miss Fay Chalmers of San Diego, intermediate grades; and Miss Ida Noonan of the grammar grades. The High School trustees have reflected H. W. Hawkins of Upland, principal, and Miss Lily Thompson of Buena Park as assistant.

GASHED OVER HEART. Riverside Man Dragged Under Teeth of Cultivator by Pair of Frightened Mules.

BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES. RIVERSIDE, July 20.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] Death came close today to Tracy Mills. He was dragged for some distance under the teeth of a cultivator by a pair of frightened mules. The young man, who is the son of Robert Mills, was cultivating an orange orchard on Adams street, when a line of harness broke. The mules started to run, in attempting to get off the machine. Mills fell under the teeth, and was pinned there while the heavy cultivator was dragged by the mules. Fred Lincoln, who was passing, stopped the animals and lifted Mills from his perilous position under the machine. The young man received a serious gash over the heart, where one of the teeth of the cultivator penetrated, but it is believed he will recover.

EXAMINED AS TO SANITY. Mrs. Myrtle E. Foster, who arrived in Corona three weeks ago from Mission, was examined as to her sanity last evening before Judge F. O. Oster of San Bernardino, presiding in the Superior Court for Judge Denmore, and she was ordered committed to the State asylum at Patton. Twelve years ago she suffered from a fall, which injured her head, and which supposed to be the cause of her mental unbalance. She has had three previous attacks.

Judge Oster also committed to the asylum Ellis May, who has been living in a tent at the corner of Frothingham and Jefferson streets. His mania took a suicidal turn yesterday, and he attempted to take his life. He claims that he has been murdered by some unknown person almost continuously for the past five years.

LEWIS-HAGERMAN. With only a few of the nearest friends in attendance, Mrs. Clara A. Hagerman and Frederick Lewis were married yesterday afternoon at Calvary Presbyterian Church. Rev. Dr. W. A. Hunter was the officiating clergyman. The bride was gowned in white, and was unattended. Mr. and Mrs. Lewis will make their home in Riverside.

SAN JACINTO. A PRICOT CROP IS BANNER ONE.

TOTAL VALUATION ESTIMATED AT HUNDRED THOUSAND.

Drying Yards Running Full-Handed—Rumor of Electric Line to Redlands—Record Grain Sale of Season—Citizens to Vote on Bond Issue for High School.

SAN JACINTO, July 20.—This week the apricot campaign will be practically closed in the San Jacinto Valley. The crop is estimated to be the biggest ever grown here and the price is better than was at first expected. The Deciduous Fruit Association will dry 500 tons and this amount has been contracted for by the city of Redlands. Three private drying yards at Valle Vista and three more in the Fruitvale district are running full handed and will dry from two hundred to two hundred and fifty tons. A conservative estimate of the crop places the amount of dried fruit for the valley at 500 tons, worth $15,000. Six hundred tons of green apricots have been consumed locally or shipped to outside canneries. The total valuation of this year's crop will be about $100,000.

PROPOSED ELECTRIC LINE. It is learned that heavy capitalists are interested in a proposed electric railroad to connect San Jacinto with Redlands. J. B. Maxwell, who returned from his Arizona ranch this week, announced that a surveying party is at work on the line. It is reported that the line from Redlands to Valle Vista, and that the same interests that have recently made large purchases in that valley are behind the proposed line to San Jacinto. The owners of the large tracts of land in and about San Jacinto, have recently taken the property off the market.

RECORD GRAIN SALE. Tuesday, Francisco Price made the latest sale of grain recently made on for this end of Riverside county. He disposed of 15,000 sacks of barley. The price is not made public. The grain harvest is advancing very rapidly throughout the valley and dry ranchers are well pleased with their fields. In some instances, on summer-fallowed land, yields of thirty sacks of barley to the acre have been harvested and wheat yields of eight and ten sacks to the acre. Men in touch with the grain market are confident that ranchers will receive $1.50 for barley before the holidays and that wheat will bring $1.75. Alfalfa hay is now selling for $1.50 per ton in the field and barley hay is worth from $10 to $11.

COMING BOND ELECTION. On July 21, an election will be held in San Jacinto for the purpose of voting on the proposition of bonding the San Jacinto High School district in the sum of $15,000. This amount is needed to purchase a site and build a school-house with modern equipment. The proposition is meeting with great favor among the property owners. The plan of uniting the Hemet Union High School District and the San Jacinto one has been abandoned.

H. W. Schwaechter of Compton passed yesterday on his way to the beef cattle, which he shipped to his fattening yards at Compton. Angelo Domenigoni is having two bunks built on his mountain ranch, just below Idyllwild. One will be occupied, when completed, by the family of Emer and family of the First National Bank of San Jacinto.

V. E. Proctor this week established a new record for well boring for Southern California when he drilled 137 feet in nine hours.

O. H. Hubbard has purchased the Milroy tract from Angelo Domenigoni. It consists of 500 acres south of Compton. The consideration was $15,000.

Prof. H. G. Stearns, who was principal of the local High School last year, has been principal of the High School at Huntington Beach.

Contractor Burnham began work on a $400 oven for the San Jacinto Bakery.

W. F. Whittier arrived in the valley this morning on the "California" train. Water users on the Hemet tract and at Valle Vista hope to make some amicable adjustment of water rates with him. Suit is now pending in the Superior Court against Whittier's water companies.

NEW PLAGUE IN CHICAGO. Pellagra Discovered Among inmates of Asylum at Dunning; Baffles Doctors.

[ASSOCIATED PRESS DAY REPORT.] CHICAGO, July 20.—Pellagra, a mysterious plague, as fatal as leprosy, and usually found only in the Southern States, and in tropical countries, has been discovered among inmates of the insane wards at the Dunning Asylum.

Three middle-aged women are now suffering with the dread malady, and six other women have succumbed to the disease within the past year. At the time of their death, Dunning physicians were mystified as to the nature of their ailment.

A suspicion that pellagra was the affliction of the women, was confirmed yesterday by Dr. C. H. Lavender, a surgeon of the United States Public Health and Marine Hospital Service, who for the last two years has been making an exhaustive study of the baffling disease at a laboratory at Columbia.

"Pellagra is one of the most mysterious diseases known to science," said Dr. Lavender. "Its cause is not entirely understood, and no certain remedy has been found for it."

"Most authorities attribute the disease to the use of food of spoiled or damaged corn or its products. But no one is able to state that corn in a certain condition will cause the disease, nor can any one guard against it."

"Pellagra eats out the body and mind, but is a chronic disease, and not acute, and usually when insanity is caused the patient is depressed and moody, rather than violent."

"The disease is not considered communicable, and no effort is made anywhere, either in Europe or in the United States, to quarantine the cases."
